The Regional Information center for youth Osijek held the second meeting of the Advisory Board

...thus, among others, emphasize the needs and stressed the usefulness of establishing the Office for Youth in the City, the importance and role of media in education and informing young people, and the advantages of conducting joint actions and projects which could be closer to young people. But not only discussed in general, but they proposed some concrete actions.

05.05.2009. We began a brief introduction to the current financial situation and the general Regional Information center for the youth Osijek, activities which were undertaken since the last meeting, and plans for future periods. The meeting passed in a really friendly atmosphere, where they were openly present their reflections on the life of young people in our city, causes some of the problems and possible ways of solving them. Thus, among others, emphasize the needs and stressed the usefulness of establishing the Office for Youth in the City, the importance and role of media in education and informing young people, and the advantages of conducting joint actions and projects which could be closer to young people. But not only discussed in general, but they proposed some concrete actions.
Likewise, exchanging some concrete experiences and problems with which the members of our Board meet in the work, but it was all interesting and useful.
Following the meeting agreed to start in July, by when will some of the proposed to be implemented.

This activitiy of the Info-center for Youth Osijek is a part of the project "All for You", which is financed by EU, through the programme PHARE 2006.
